CORAM : S.C.DHARMADHIKARI, J.

DATE : 5th May 2006

PC :

1. This suit filed for dissolution of partnership firm M/s.Ramchandra Lalji & Company, is settled between the partners who are related to each other. The plaintiff is the brother of defendant no.1 and son of defendant no.2.

2. During pendency of the suit the Accounts of the firm have been settled and no claims are now pending of the partners against each other. The plaintiff agrees to withdraw the suit. Parties agree that the interim order passed by this Court, to stand vacated. The Court Receiver would be discharged on payment of costs, charges and expenses by the plaintiff but without passing accounts and possession of the premises which are tenanted, would be surrendered to the landlord. The consideration would be shared equally. The plaintiff has agreed to settle the claims of parties whose names are set out in clauses 7 and 8. He has also taken over the stocks on payment of the sum mentioned in clause-5. The terms are signed by plaintiff and his advocate. Defendant no.2 appearing in person, is present in the Court. The terms have been explained to him and he is agreeable to them. He has signed the same.

3. Consent terms taken on record and marked "X" for identification. Order in terms of the consent terms.
